TO THE POLLS!
TO THE POLLS!!

On Monday next every Democrat is expected to do his duty—the whigs will be sure to do theirs. Let none be persuaded by a consciousness of superior strength that it is unnecessary to vote. In counting up the aggregate popular vote of the whole union, every democratic vote is important. Let us aim in this last decisive contest with federalism, not only for victory, but signal, overwhelming victory. All our professions of attachment and devotion to Democratic Republican principles will be wanting in proof, if we fail in this last most important act. To our Democratic Friends who are situated at an inconvenient distance from the precincts, and to all, we would say, let no hurry of domestic business, or any other cause which can be overcome, keep you from the polls. Deprive not yourselves, for any minor consideration, of the privilege of participating in the great democratic victory of 1844. Resolve, at whatever sacrifice to give this one day to your country. You can never render a more valuable day's service, either civil or military, at the ballot box or in the battle field.

The present is the last number of our paper we shall issue previous to the election. We close our labours in the present political canvass, with heart felt satisfaction; conscious that our labors have been honestly exerted in a noble cause; with what success we leave others to judge. Our next act will be to vote. We never have, and never expect to cast a vote with more hearty good will, than that we design to give on Monday next for JAMES K. POLK and GEORGE M. DALLAS.

Brother Democrats, one and all, come to the polls! Let every true-hearted democrat who has stood bravely in the glorious cause, be as generous in the glorious victory that awaits us.

When we send forth our next number, instead of its being laden, as heretofore, with arguments against the error and corruption in principle and practice of modern whiggery, we fully anticipate and believe, that it will bear abroad the cheering notes of victory—the glad shout of democratic triumph.

Read the interesting letter of the Hon. James Hamilton to Daniel Webster. We make this request particularly of our whig friends; that they may be fully informed before they vote for Henry Clay, of the great sacrifice they are making, of Southern interests; and indeed of the interests of the whole Union; by aiding in his elevation. Possibly there may yet be some, who have hitherto adhered to him, notwithstanding the most convincing proofs that his tariff policy would act as an injury to the cotton planter of at least from three to five dollars on every bale of cotton he raises; besides making him pay from thirty to fifty per cent. higher for Northern manufactures, who will refuse to consummate the last act, by their vote, when they read this letter. Possibly there may be some who are still determined to support Clay with a full knowledge of his bribery distribution policy, his fraudulent bankrupt system, his refusal to obey the instructions of his constituents, his manifest tampering for the abolition vote, his contradictory and inconsistent letters on every subject; with much more that we might here add, who will refuse to vote for him when they see the incontrovertible proof contained in this letter, that his election would cost the United States, in the loss of Texas alone, at least one hundred millions of dollars, besides the permanent acquisition of a territory sufficient for six such States as Alabama. But if they are willing to make this great sacrifice for the elevation of Henry Clay, in the hope and prospect that his measure will fall on the shoulders of Daniel Webster, the northern blue light Federalist—if no motives of principle or policy can influence them, we still wish them to read, that they may be able to act with their eyes open, and not have it in their power to plead ignorance in future for their conduct on this occasion.

We have hitherto neglected to mention, that by the late election law, passed in 1842 no citizen of this State is allowed to vote out of his own county, nor even there, unless he has resided one year next preceding in the State and three months in the county. Fine and imprisonment is the penalty for fraudulent voting.

ELECTION TICKETS.
We have filled one column of this number of our paper with the names of the democratic Electors. After our friends have read the paper they can cut these tickets out and use them at precincts where tickets have not been distributed. We have still a quantity of printed tickets on hand which shall cost our friends nothing but the trouble of calling for them.

Vote of Pennsylvania.—It was conceded by many intelligent democrats, acquainted with public opinion there, that unless Shunk beat Markle at least 10,000 votes in the Governor's election, the State would be certain for Mr. Clay in November. Tus. Mont.

Had Shunk beat Markle 10,000, instead of 5,000, the above paragraph would have read thus: "It was conceded by many intelligent democrats, acquainted with public opinion there, that unless Shunk beat Markle 15,000 votes, &c."

RANDOLPH BOYS!
THE BANNER COUNTY!
You took the BANNER, at the Chambers Rally, on the 11th of NOVEMBER, rally under its beautiful folds—in the cause of democratic principles! RALLY! FREEMEN, RALLY! from the mountains, and from your valleys, and your Banner, you so proudly won, will be left in good hands, a STANDARD, of your untiring exertions in extending the area of REPUBLICAN LIBERTY, over the beautiful plains of Texas! Give that day to your country! Go forth to battle, amidst the blaze of contending foes! Put forth your BANNER, the breeze, and under the STRAITS and STRAINS of your old Revolutionary Fathers, gather new laurels, for your Banner!

GOV. DORR—HIS DETERMINATION
"For Mr. Dor, we have no condolence to offer. On the contrary we envy him his glorious cell. We envy him the honor of being the object of those indignant feelings which are rising up to him and for him from the great heart of the American people. We envy not the distant triumph of his return to freedom and worthily compensating proofs of the sympathy and applause of his countrymen. We do not expect him to remain true to his position. This we fully well know to be needless. We know that Dor is made of that material that he would rather die there a thousand deaths, whether of quick torture, or of slow decay, than yield a hair's breadth. We only know him to be of good cheer—to retain that high serenity and manly cheerfulness of heart, of which, both in his private letters and public demonstrations, he has shown the most touching evidence. His enemies—the enemies of his country, and of the liberties of our country, are glad that he will ere long be compelled to yield before the moral dignity of such a noble endurance. They are striving only to humiliate him; to extort from the unwarmed conscience of a long captivity, the submission, without which all this protestant frigate of the Federal Union with its other side, is a mockery. But they cannot long maintain a position which humiliates them, and which is a disgrace to the public indignation; swell louder and louder from all quarters of the Union; and a universal cry of shame! will force them to abandon this dastardly business of a vengeance purely personal and malignant in proportion to its conscious wrongfulness. It will rally again the broken and disorganized array of the old Suffrage party in Rhode Island, and as a turning point of party division, the question of the liberation of the prisoner will require but a brief period of agitation to revolutionize a large portion of the State." Reading Ad.

"Theirs! we reflect upon the position of Gov. Dor, as we become satisfied that the people of Rhode Island, at the people of the Union will do justice to the man, and justice to the cause that led to his incarceration. We look upon Governor Dor as one who looks upon Washington and Jefferson born to accomplish some great end; designed by Providence to be instrumental in establishing some great and fundamental principle; necessary for the welfare and happiness of the human race; and in this Rhode Island controversy, it is holier than that of the right of the people to a state, whether the Legislature, the servants of the people or the people themselves are supreme is a divine maxim, that the servant is not greater than his master. If the Legislature is independent of the people, the creature must be controlled by the creature; then Republican Governments are at an end; and the principle of liberty, that no man or place, the legislative powers of a state above the people. To the people of Rhode Island the patriot directs his hopes. The people of the Union demand the liberation of Dor. They demand that the sacred principles of American Independence shall not be trampled upon by a few men in a sister State."

TERRIBLE STEAMBOAT DISASTER!
EXPLOSION OF THE LUCY WALKER.
—60 to 80 KILLED AND WOUNDED.

On Wednesday, the 23d inst. the steamboat Lucy Walker, Capt. Vann, left Louisville, Ky., for New Orleans, crowded with passengers. About four miles below New Albany, Indiana, some of the machinery being out of order, the engine was stopped to make repairs. About five minutes after the engine stopped working, her three boilers exploded upwards, blowing all the upper works of the boat into fragments. The U. S. snag boat, Gopher, Capt. S. B. Daubman, was within two hundred yards of the Lucy Walker when the explosion took place; Capt. Daubman hastened to the place, and he and his crew rendered every possible assistance to the dead, dying and wounded. The conduct of Capt. D. is spoken of in the highest terms of commendation. The Louisville Courier of Thursday, (24th inst.) in an extra, from which we abridge the foregoing, concludes the account of the awful disaster as follows:—

Mr. John H. Hinton and Mr. Henry Bebee, passengers on the Lucy Walker, deserve notice for their coolness and their efficient exertions in saving the lives of drowning persons. The following are the names of the dead, missing and wounded, so far as we have been able to learn them:

KILLED AND MISSING.
Gen. J. W. Pegram, of Richmond, Va.; Saml. M. Brown, Post Office Agent, of Lexington, Ky.; J. R. Cornick, of Virginia; Chas. Dornie, of Louisville; Phil Wills, formerly of Baltimore; Rebecca, daughter of A. J. Foster, of Greenville, Va.; Jas. Vanderberg, of Louisville; Mr. Hughes, formerly of Lexington Ky.; Mr. Matlock of New Albany, engineer of the steamboat Mazeppa; Nicholas Ford, formerly of this city; David Vann, the Captain; Moses Kirby, pilot; Second mate, second clerk, second engineer, barkeeper, and three deck hands, names unknown.

WOUNDED.
W. H. Prebles—very badly hurt.
Mr. Raines, of Va. "do."
First Engineer, "do."
Capt. Thompson, pilot—arms fractured.
Mr. Roberts, of Phila., slightly hurt.
It is supposed that John N. Johnson and Richard Phillips were on board—if so, they are lost.

The boat was owned by Capt. Vann, of Arkansas, and was insured.
We hope to be able to learn more names and particulars to-morrow.

ONK.—The whig Cannon of domestic manufacture was burst while firing at the Montgomery Convention. Some of the democrats say that it was loaded with Polk berries; we think it very probable, for Polk is mortal on whig Cannon! But the best of the story is to tell. We are informed that the individual appointed to receive it, on the part of the Macon delegation, to whom it was presented by the Talladega delegation, promised that when Henry Clay was elected it should be heard in Montgomery. This we think the most probable part of the story. Long will it be before the Mont. Convention bears that cannon. We are informed that the whig was fired around for the 24th State, and cannot be buried at the 5th State, and is significant once that—Water Argus.

MAJOR OF BALTIMORE.
The telegraph brings us the glorious news of the election of Jacob G. Davies (whig) the present incumbent, Mr. Law was elected Mayor last year by 200 majority, and both branches of the council were whig. Davies beats him 603, and the democrats carry 10 wards to the whigs, four for the council. This is perhaps the greatest victory the democrats have notched in Baltimore within the last twenty years. Twice, and only twice, within that time, we believe, have they had so large a majority in Baltimore; and then they were opposed by men much less popular than Mr. Law. If Mr. Davies is in every trait of character which endears a man, Mr. Law is a member of most of the benevolent societies of Baltimore, &c., without doubt, as the votes for him prove, the most popular whig in Baltimore. The vote for him last year and this, is larger than any other whig of Baltimore ever obtained in that city.

The following is the vote of to-day, as brought by the telegraph to-night:—

Wards, Davies (D.)	603
Law (W.)	222
3rd ward	440
4th ward	443
5th ward	521
6th ward	594
7th ward	669
8th ward	596
9th ward	546
10th ward	524
11th ward	417
12th ward	628
13th ward	1062
14th ward	465
15th ward	434
16th ward	578
17th ward	645
18th ward	756
19th ward	530
20th ward	695
21st ward	639
22nd ward	467
23rd ward	799
24th ward	799

Davies's majority, 503.

WE ARE WHERE WE ALWAYS HAVE BEEN.
The federalists are where we always have been, and where we ever mean to be! was borne in the whig procession yesterday; and an occurrence in State street marked how it was understood and appreciated by the old federal leaders. At various points of the march, men were stationed to give the cue for cheering. When the banner with the above motto approached State street, the man who pitched the tune there, gave the word most audibly—"THREE CHIEFS FOR THE OLD FEDERAL PARTY OF MASSACHUSETTS!"—and it was followed by the heartiest cheering of the whole movement. Boston Post of 1840.

"In declaring our hostility to the democratic party, we but proclaim that we are where we ALWAYS HAVE BEEN!"—Address of Rockland-Clay Club, 1844.

Ay, it is well! The truth is told—Ye are where ye have always been—Still with the Tories, as of old—Still with the foes of freedom seen—Degrading boast—what patriot's eye But with the glance of scorn is fraught? What freeman's cheek but manifies high, And burns indignant at the thought?

Where HAVE ye been? In that dark day When war rag'd wildly through the land, And wreck and rapine mark'd the way Of England's mercenary band; Who's cause did then your hearts engage? Where were ye in that hour of fear? Freedom! go look on history's page, And read the damning answer there!

Where HAVE ye been? Ask him whose eye Beam'd brightly as he cross'd the sea, Trusting to find beneath our sky, A peaceful home and friendship free—The injured ALLEN—ask him tell Where ye have been, and he will tell Attale to cause the blush of shame On every honest cheek to dwell.

Where HAVE ye been? Could he who dar'd To plead in truth's undying cause—Who dar'd to let his voice be heard Despite an Adams' kingly law—Could MATTHEW LYON'S answer back, How like a thunderbolt would fall His tale of federal wrong and rack Hop'd on him in a dungeon's wall?

And will ye be with such, ye true? Ye faithful sons of those brave sires Who to their country's aid first flew—First kindled freedom's altar-fire—Will ye not blush to be with those Who left their country at her need—Nay, even dar'd to help the foe? Who sought to crush her like a weed?

Will ye not scorn to be where they Proclaim their "ever mean to be"—Driving the friendless one away—Stopping the voices of the free? Ye have oft spur'd them with disdain, And on them set the traitor's seal; Will ye not rise and strike again One more blow for your country's weal? E. M. H.

Let us not be insanely confident of the permanence of our institutions. Let us not imagine that our Republic will be preserved by a miracle. Republics have fallen in days gone by—splendid, powerful Republics. The crash of their fall echoes to the years of ages. We may see their ruins now, magnificent even in decay. Let us not rest upon the glorious promises of the past nor its memorable deeds. Let us not think our cause invulnerable, because it was supported with prayer, because great men, like Paul and Washington, were its pioneers. Let us remember that the Republic is just as vulnerable for rights as durable in the hands of the people. It has no root in the ashes of the dead. It lives in the vital force of the living generation. It lives with their morality, their truth, their righteousness, it dies when these die. Let these vindicate and rot, and we are sure to perish as every nation perished in the past. And with all our advantages and anticipations deepening the shame of our fall, others will step their hands at us, and hiss, and wag their heads, saying: "Is this the land of great experiments, and lofty principles of glorious promise, and a unprecedented opportunity?"—Chapin's Sermon.

We are at this time very much in need of money to purchase a stock of paper, and earnestly request those indebted to us for subscriptions, advertising &c. to settle their accounts during the term of our approaching Circuit Court. Necessity compels us to make this plain request, at which we hope none will be offended; but if they should, we may as well cease from business for the want of patronage as the want of pay.

We will be prepared to make liberal advances in Cash, or Bagging and Rope, Groceries or Dry Goods, on Cotton stored with us.

With strict attention to business, and a prompt and a punctual discharge of our duties, as Agents for others, entitle us to a patronage, we shall expect to receive the support of our old friends and acquaintances, and a liberal share of the patronage of the public generally.

WARE-HOUSE
AND COMMISSION BUSINESS.

 I would respectfully inform my old friends and customers, and the public generally, that I shall again on the 1st of September next, commence the above business, and shall be prepared to advance at any time after this date, either, Cash, Bagging and Rope, or Groceries, upon Cotton or Merchandise stored with me. And as I have gone to great expense in building a large Fire-Proof Warehouse, as I trust for the benefit and accommodation, of my old friends and patrons, and the public generally, I hope by attending strictly to all business entrusted ted to my case, I shall receive a liberal share of custom. I would inform those who may have any apprehension from high water, that I am now filling up my yard entirely above high water mark, higher than the water has ever been known to rise. As I am informed that some of the Warehouse men, are trying to get business by cutting under, (as we call it,) I would inform all who have an idea of giving me their business, that I intend to do business as low as any other house.

I have associated with brother A. Hatchett, in the business with me, and we shall do business under the name of W. T. Hatchett, & Bro.
